FIRENZE

Our “Terroir” range is the expression of wines that perfectly reflect the character of Chianti Rufina. They are very important to us. The expression of what a Tuscan wine should be. Cedro is a wine built in the great tradition of Chianti Rufina, with our personal touch. It's a fresh, balanced wine with polished tannins. A wine to share or to offer on special occasions.

CEDRO - D.O.C.G Chianti Rufina

Sangiovese

750ml - 1500ml / 13.5% vol.

Production zone

Rufina (Tuscany)
The vines are located 450 mt above sea level
above sea level in a clay soil particularly rich in limestone, which gives this wine its distinctive character.
Average production: 25,000 bottles

Harvest

By hand in crates before the end of September.

Vinification

Delicate destemming of grapes; temperature-controlled fermentation and maceration in stainless steel.

Ageing

In 30 hl concrete tanks for for about 15 months. Then maturation in for at least 6 months.

Intense, brilliant ruby-red brilliant.

Notes of undergrowth and small berries are accompanied by notes of dry rose and violet.

On the palate, the notes are moderately notes of spice and leather, bringing a lovely roundness.
The crisp acidity on the finish speaks truly of the Rufina appellation.

In its early years, this wine goes with all foods, and as it ages, it is aged, it is delicious with meats in sauce poultry and roasts.
Serve at 16-18°C
